

Creative Aging San Francisco

Supporting Membership

Creative Aging SF has over 100 participants throughout the Bay Area who have signed up to receive information about our monthly meetings, gatherings, and ongoing events. In order to become a registered member and be listed as such on our website, participants are invited to pay a yearly registration fee of $20. To sign up please contact Kari Rogenski, CASF Treasurer, at krogenski@sageeldercare.com. Our membership season begins in July of each year.

- Monthly on-site or online gatherings highlighting creative aging presentations by a variety of organizations in the Bay Area (Want to be featured? Email creativeagingSF@gmail.com).
- You'll be listed as registered member on our website, which highlights your contact information and keywords describing your contributions to the field of creative aging.
- An active Facebook page to share ideas and events.
- Access to an annual calendar highlighting the events of Creative Aging SF members (members are invited to contribute).
- Opportunities for networking, outreach, community building
- Inspiration and resource sharing so your library and Creative Aging toolkit continues to expand and grow.
- Support from the collective to help your creative aging program or business flourish.
